Wet Ink
the magazine of new writing

Welcome to Wet Ink
— a magazine that's dedicated to publishing new and exciting writing.

Inside each issue you'll find fiction, poetry and creative non-fiction, interviews, photography, book reviews and more. It's the place to discover some of today's best up-and-coming talent, as well as new works by established authors.

We've crammed every issue with reading that is entertaining, thought provoking and, at times, challenging. It's the sort of magazine you'll want to keep coming back to again and again. Make sure you get your copy by subscribing, from selected outlets, or by ordering online.
